Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Ms. Phyllis Kinsler, President and Chief Executive Officer of Planned Parenthood of New Jersey. After thirty-seven years of service to the Planned Parenthood community, Ms. Kinsler will be retiring in December of 2011. Her outstanding commitment and dedication to protecting and defending women's health and reproductive rights are worthy of this body's recognition.

Phyllis Kinsler's advocacy work, spanning three decades, for women's health issues is the backbone of the success of Planned Parenthood. Planned Parenthood of Central New Jersey (PPCNJ) serves over 15,000 women each year, providing a wide range of contraception, cancer screening and various other services to women throughout Monmouth, Middlesex and Ocean Counties. The organization remains the leading provider of women's reproductive health care. Under Ms. Kinsler's leadership, the organization has maintained their strong commitment to providing women with affordable, high quality health care services. PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 14, 2011

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained addressing matters related to a historic snow storm in Connecticut and so I missed rollcall vote No. 816 regarding H. Con. Res. 13, "Reaffirming 'In God We Trust' as the official motto of the United States and supporting and encouraging the public display of the national motto in all public buildings, public schools, and other government institutions." Had I been present, I would have voted "yes".

RECOGNIZING THE 2011 WORLD SKILLS PARTICIPANTS

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 14, 2011

Mr. CONNOLLY of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the SkillsUSA World Skills Team for their success in the 2011 WorldSkills competition in London, winning four medals, and their overall dedication to improving their vocational training.

SkillsUSA began in 1965 as the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, an organization founded by teachers and students to promote increased leadership training in their various vocational fields. The participants in SkillsUSA are high school graduates who have taken the initiative to improve their capabilities in their chosen field. The technical expertise and leadership qualities they learn not only better prepare them to succeed individually; they also enable the participants to impart that knowledge and skill-set to their classmates and co-workers.

Seventeen participants represented America in the 2011 WorldSkills competition in a variety of skills: Cameron McCreery competed in Autobody Repair. Daniel Lehmkuhl competed in Automobile Technology and received a Medallion for Excellence. Raychel Bland competed in Beauty Therapy. Bradley Wright competed in Bricklaying. Brett Ottinger competed in Cabinetmaking. Joseph King competed in Computer Numerical Control Milling. Maxwell Hershey competed in Computer Numerical Control Turning. Rachel Koppelman competed in Cooking and received a Medallion for Excellence. Victoria Brown competed in Graphic Design. Laina Call competed in Hairdressing and received a Medallion for Excellence. Matthew Vicari competed in IT/PC Networking. Ryan Spinden competed in Plumbing. Ben Phillips competed in Printing. John Huhn competed in Refrigeration. Melissa Rubincan competed in Restaurant Service. Brett Patterson competed in Web Design. Bradley Clink competed in Welding and received the Silver medal.

Mr. Speaker, the participants in SkillsUSA embody the American worker at his and her best—proactively seeking innovation and improvement. I ask that my colleagues join me in congratulating the SkillsUSA WorldTeam 2011 in their accomplishments both during this year's competition, and throughout their vocational careers.

IN RECOGNITION OF CHAPLAIN DALE GOETZ

HON. DOUG LAMBORN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 14, 2011

Mr. LAMBORN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a fallen American hero—Army Chaplain Dale Allen Goetz. Goetz is the first Army clergyman killed in action since the Vietnam War. Goetz was killed a year ago while serving his country in Afghanistan.

On August 30, 2010, Goetz was riding with a resupply convoy when the enemy attacked with an improvised explosive device near the Arghandab River Valley.

Four of his fellow soldiers from Fort Carson died with him in that attack.

Army Chaplains are considered noncombatants and do not carry weapons. Chaplains do not go on combat patrol, but do go onto battlefields to conduct services and counsel soldiers.

Goetz was serving with the 1st Battalion, 66th Armor Regiment, 1st Brigade Combat Team with the 4th Infantry Division of Fort Carson, Colorado.

Goetz grew up in Hood River, Oregon. His first job after high school was working at an old-fashioned dairy where he processed milk and sold ice cream cones at a drive-up window. A year before graduating from high school, Goetz became a Christian. After graduating, he joined the Air Force then attended Maranatha Baptist Bible College. He later earned his Master of Divinity at Central Baptist Theological Seminary. Goetz moved to White, South Dakota where he was pastor before joining the Army to serve our soldiers.

Goetz served his country for nearly 11 years before he was killed. It was his third deployment.

Goetz, who was 43-years old, left behind his wife, Christy, and their three young boys. He is also survived by his mother, Hope, and his sisters, Kim Sumner and Ann Senetar.

In paying tribute to Chaplain Goetz, I would like to enter into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a short poem written by a longtime Capitol Tour Guide Bert Caswell.

THE FAITH OF HIS FATHER IN HONOR OF A FALLEN HERO CHAPLAIN CAPTAIN DALE
GOETZ THE LORD AND THE UNITED STATES
ARMY

Goodness!

Evil!

Darkness!

Light!

Those brave hearts who evil must fight!

Who bring their light!

All in the darkness of war. . . .

Unarmed. . . .

There are but all of those on battlefields of honor,

Chaplains who so ensure. . . .

The Faith of our Father. . . .

Who but bring our Lord's light!

The Faith of Our Father, to help souls to endure. . . .

Armed, with but only Bible in hand. . . .

As it was there midst of such evil, Dale, you were to so stand!
